

The Santa Clara County Historical and Genealogical Society presents:

Life Story Writing

Tuesday, March 20, 2018

6:30 pm – 8:30 pm

Sharing our family history with future generations needs to be one of our goals for the preservation of all of our careful research. Craig Siulinski will help us explore ways to do that.

In his presentation, Craig will offer suggestions on writing, publishing, and even sharing our information using several mediums, including blogs.

Craig is the author of three blogs relating to genealogy and family history including August Legacy dedicated to his maternal grandfather, Auguste Albert of Westbrook, Maine. Craig will tell us about his new venture, Sharing Legacies, which is an effort to help families preserve and share their stories now and for generations to come.

Please join us for this very important discussion of a vital component in the process of researching and preserving our family history.
